Terms and conditions

1. Subject to the payment of the Fee, which shall be a condition of this undertaking coming into effect, Inderscience hereby undertakes to prepare and publish the Article in the Journal, subject to payment of the Fee, and shall make the Article available on an open access basis to all readers without charge, whether or not a subscriber to the Journal, subject to the terms of a Creative Commons Licence.

> CC-BY: Creative Commons Attribution Licence 4.0 [https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0] This licence permits others to re-use, reproduce, re-distribute and/or build upon your work, including for commercial purposes, providing they acknowledge you as author, and attribute original publication to the journal.
>
> CC-BY-NC-ND: Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivs Licence 4.0 [https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/] This licence permits readers to copy, distribute and transmit the OA article providing they acknowledge and attribute the article to the author, the journal in which it is published, and Inderscience as publisher. Use for commercial purposes, and alteration or transformation of the article in some derivative work, are prohibited.

All authors whose research work is funded by Research Councils UK (RCUK) and Wellcome Trust must select the CC-BY licence in accordance with those funder mandates effective from 1 April 2013.

2. The Editor of the Journal and Inderscience are empowered to make such editorial changes as may be necessary to make the Article suitable for publication. Every effort will be made to consult the Author if substantive changes are required.

3. Copyright in the Article shall remain vested in the Author. In the case of CC BY-NC-ND, the Author licences and authorizes Inderscience to publish the Article in printed and electronic form, and sub-licence such reprint, re-publishing, and distribution as Inderscience shall deem appropriate in the interests of the Journal. In the case of CC-BY these permissions are automatically granted to Inderscience and any other entity wishing to republish the Article, or modify it for publication.

4. The Author warrants that the Article is the Author's original work, has not been published before, and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere; and that the Article contains no libellous or unlawful statements and that it in no way infringes the rights of others, and that the Author, as the owner of the copyright, is entitled to make this assignment.

5. If the Article was prepared jointly by more than one author, the Author warrants that he/she has been authorised by all co-authors to enter into this agreement on their behalf.
