Scope of the Journal

ISSN: 1751-6757 (Print), ISSN: 1751-6765 (Online)

EJIM is the first international journal devoted entirely to fostering an understanding of issues in international management theory and practice in the newly expanded European arena, including the underrepresented regions of Northern, Central and Eastern Europe, and to providing both conceptual and functional implications for further development of research, teaching practices, and managerial techniques. EJIM also solicits literature that allows for a broader interpretation of research: it welcomes papers that introduce a more European perspective through qualitative and interdisciplinary contributions.

Topics covered include:

- International management in Europe
- International entrepreneurship and innovation
- International human resource and talent management
- International organisational communications and information systems
- International strategy and business policy
- International marketing management
- Methodological aspects in international and comparative research
- Cross-cultural Management
- Global leadership
- Comparative management systems
- Global spirituality and religion in management
- International value and supply chain management
- International management reviews and meta-analysis
