Scope of the Journal

ISSN: 1740-2085 (Print), ISSN: 1740-2093 (Online)

The ability of enterprises to persist, grow and survive depends on their ability to adapt to new conditions, manage change and become a de-facto element of a revenue food-chain.

Adaptability is a function of being able to generate and affect new responses quickly. The current state of toolsets to deal with enterprise design is inadequate. IJCent addresses new concepts for systematic integration of methods dealing with people/process/technology that can lead to the development of capability for the Design of Enterprise.
