Scope of the Journal

ISSN: 1742-7541 (Print), ISSN: 1742-755X (Online)

IJTGM fosters discussion on the various interrelationships between economic growth at national and international levels and international trade. The journal will emphasise the implications that trade policy exerts on economic growth and vice versa, as well the role of national governments, international organisations and the business community on related issues of worldwide concern.

Contents:

IJTGM publishes original papers and case studies. The aim is to offer an independent, non-partisan perspective on the issues of economics and trade.

Topics covered include:

- International trade
- Economic growth
- The role of international economic organisations in the global economy
- International economic issues
- Interaction between global markets and trade
- Implications of globalisation on markets and trade
- WTO and its policies
- FDI and the international economics
- The role of IT in the process of globalisation
- The importance of growing wealth disparity in trade and management
- The impact of government debts on international trade and management issues
- The role of oil and gas: industry intentions, pricing strategies, etc.
