VENUE

Hunter College Conference Center, City University of New York 695 Park Avenue at 68th Street, New York City

AIMS AND SCOPE

The 2015 International Conference for Critical Accounting (ICCA -- main meeting) provides a forum for exploring critical research on emerging issues in accounting, auditing tax and teaching. It brings together interested faculty, professionals, policy makers, accounting students and others concerned with professional and regulatory issues in the corporate, university, government, and financial sectors. The conference and our journal affiliates raise questions that currently face the profession, and seek radical changes in the conduct of accounting and auditing practice, education and research. The conference and our journal affiliates inquire original contributions that examine these issues of social, governmental, and corporate accountability which presently face professionals, educators, and scholars.

The following are illustrative, but not exhaustive of the general conference themes:

Audits of banks and Sovereign Debt; The Subprime Crisis; the origins of the World-Wide Recession; Bernie Madoff and after; Coercion and Ethics in doing Critical Doctoral Research, Resisting and Transforming the Commodification of Practice and Teaching; Race & Class; Multicultural Analysis; Poetry of Accounting; Institutional Failures - Litigation, Malpractice & Competition; Impact of Information Technologies; Social Audits, Accounting & the State; Ecology & Green Accounting; Gender Relations & Feminist Theories; European and African accounting issues; Globalization & International Issues; Critical Histories -Auditing as Social Dialogue; Public Sector and Healthcare Issues; New Technologies in teaching & practice; Management Accounting Developments; Regulation, standard setting and capital markets and Critical Ethnographies. Accounting Education, SEC, FASB, PCAOB, GAAP IFRS, New Labor Process, Student Employment Challenges, How Karl Marx Would analyze the Financial Crises, Corporate Responsibility or Federal Responsibility: Cyber Attacks, and Terrorism.
