SMi Group are proud to announce the launch of the inaugural MilSatCom USA which will take place in Arlington, Virginia on 28th-29th June 2016.

With growing external threats to US Space Assets, greater focus on streamlining the MilSatCom acquisition process and a greater desire for international partnering in the US, there will be a great opportunity for the US SatCom community and allies to meet and discuss how greater progress can be made. This forum will bring together the key government and military personnel as well as industry and this will ensure a highly productive and beneficial meet for all parties.

Supported by Inderscience Publishers.

SMi Group are delighted to offer a special $100 discount (on top of the currently advertising price) to all subscribers. Use this voucher code – SMIAT7Z - when booking online at www.milsatcom-usa.com/inderscience

Topics addressed include key aspects of protected SatCom, such as the protected tactical waveform, jam resistance and low probability of intercept. In line with the need to ensure higher resiliency and greater capabilities, also addressed will be the potential integration of ComSatCom for MilSatCom systems, the robustness of networks and the strengthening of MilSatCom architectures for current and future programmes.

AUDIENCE PROFILE:

The participants at MilSatCom USA will be the most senior decision makers responsible modernising, adapting and procuring new space systems and satellites. They will be joined by high-level space policy makers, experience operational MilSatCom end-users and senior government and military MilSatCom strategists, all with the intention to advance capabilities through greater collaboration with both industry and governments.
