

Don't miss Combat Logistics, 4th-5th April 2017 in Warsaw, Poland, to learn from leading nations about the modernisation of supply chains, discuss the implications of Enhanced Forward Presence and understand the best way to integrate delivery methods into commercialised supply chains.

The mission commander of Enhanced Forward Presence, Brigadier General Steven Ainsworth, US Army Europe, will deliver a unique insight into the current strategies behind military logistics that you cannot afford to miss.

Download the programme at www.combat-logistics.com. Military end users receive free entry.