

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING SOCIETY'S SYMPOSIUM

THEME

ISSUES ON AFRICAN STUDIES AND RESEARCH

JANUARY 6-7, 2017 NEW YORK, USA

DATE

January 6-7, 2017

VENUE

Hunter College Conference Center, City University of New York
695 Park Avenue at 68th Street, New York City

SCOPE AND AIMS

We are delighted to announce that the Critical Accounting Society's Symposium will be dedicated to AFRICA'S ISSUES. We encourage all contributions to participate. The following, but not limited to, disciplines are included in the topic.

Accounting, Anthropology, Auditing, Business, Economics, Environmental Issues, Management, Finance, Geography, IT, History, Liberal Arts Studies, Political Sciences, Sociology, Sustainable Development, Trade, etc.

The Critical Accounting Society aims also to celebrate new achievements in African studies and research. This is the premiere event to share your work with colleagues.

Papers presented at the Symposium will be considered for publication in the African Journal of Accounting Auditing and Finance (indexed in Thompson Reuters), or in the African Journal of Economic and Sustainable Development (indexed in Agricultural Economics Database –CABI), after the reviewers' recommendations.

PROGRAM

We offer Virtual participation to attendees who will not be able to obtain their visas on time.

- Authors are invited to submit full manuscripts, abstracts, projects or a proposal of a special stream. Abstracts should be 300 words or less.

ALL Contributions should be submitted to Professor Aida Sy at Aida.sy1776@gmail.com

SUBMISSIONS DEADLINES

July 1, 2016---- The Critical Accounting Society begins accepting submissions.

December 1, 2016---- Deadline for Submissions

FURTHER INFORMATION

For registration and further information, contact Professor Aida Sy at Aida.sy1776@gmail.com

The Critical Accounting Society is on Facebook
@criticalaccountingsociety

Copyright © 1993-2017 by Critical Accounting Society; All Rights Reserved.

