

This special issue is dedicated to the memory of Professor Massimo Salzano

Department of Economical and Statistical Sciences University of Salerno, Italy

who passed away on 13 October 2007. He has provided relevant contributions to the establishment of complex systems ideas and models in the area of economical studies. He was also a very special person; we will miss him a lot.