Scope of the Journal

ISSN: 1479-4853 (Print), ISSN: 1479-4861 (Online)

Strategy management involves understanding the forces and causes that explain performance differences between organisations, a result of different stocks of knowledge-based resources and capabilities. The intellectual capital literature focuses on the measurement of firms' knowledge base. It also addresses building guidelines for the development of "intellectual capital accounts". JLIC covers the latest advances on organisational learning, knowledge management and intellectual capital measuring and reporting. It promotes ways in which these impact on firms' competitive advantage in the New Economy.

Topics covered include:

- Knowledge cities and regions; universities of the future
- Future skills of knowledge workers
- Challenges and trends in knowledge and creative economics
- Intangible resources, sustainability, big data
- Competitive strategy, knowledge-based view of the firm
- Human/relational/social/organisational capital
- Cultural capital and economic development
- Human resource management, intellectual capital reporting
- Organisational learning, networked learning
- Social networks, gamification
- Innovation, knowledge management and leadership
- Product and process innovation, technology and innovation management
- Knowledge economics and neuroeconomics
- Quality, dynamic capabilities and routines
- Case studies and cross-country studies
