

International Journal of Blockchains and Cryptocurrencies

Call for Papers for Inaugural Issue

Editor in Chief: Prof. Sam Goundar

ISSN online: 2516-6433

ISSN print: 2516-6425

Blockchains and cryptocurrencies are now topics of substantial impact that academia and industry need to contemplate, exploit and adopt. The mission of IJBC is to be the premier resource for the most innovative scholarly and professional research information pertaining to the management and use of blockchains and cryptocurrencies. Its articles will be essential for anyone interested in this area. The International Journal of Blockchains and Cryptocurrencies (IJBC) is the first journal dedicated to this topic.

IJBC publishes original papers, review papers, technical reports, case studies and book reviews. Special Issues devoted to important topics in financial technology will occasionally be published.

We cordially invite authors to submit articles for consideration for IJBC's inaugural issue.

Suitable topics include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Blockchains
- Blockchain applications
- Blockchain technologies
- Cryptocurrency
- Blockchain security
- Bitcoin
- Bitcoin security
- FinTech
- Digital currencies
- Distributed ledger technologies
- Smart contracts
- Permissioned ledgers
