

About Inderscience Publishers

We are an independent company with over 35 years' publishing experience, offering over 420 high quality peer-reviewed international journals in wide-ranging disciplines including science, engineering and technology; environment and sustainability; health and biosciences; computing; economics; and management. We pride ourselves on providing a framework for authors to publish in new areas. Our cross-disciplinary approach, international editorial boards and list of contributors make us a pioneering publisher that aims to foster and promote innovative thinking.

Linking centres of excellence worldwide

The Society and Leisure Journals Collection

This small but growing collection includes titles covering the three main areas of arts and culture, society, and sports and leisure. The list has a strong slant towards the use of technology, including technology related to the arts, social systems science, digital media, social computing/networking, network mining and information management. Intercultural and other issues are also covered in relation to sustainable society, business and globalisation, migration, happiness, human rights and knowledge-based development.
